Directions

Situation

The thriving village of Scone has proven popular with buyers drawn by the easy access to Perth, Dundee and Central Scotland's motorway network. It is very well provided for including a bank, butcher and two supermarkets. Perth has very good range of shops, professional services, restaurants and good leisure facilities.

Nearby Scone Palace, one of Scotland's finest stately homes, hosts the Game Conservancy's annual Scottish Fair, National Hunt Racing and polo. In addition to Murrayshall Golf Course is close by and there are popular courses at Dunkeld, Crieff, Gleneagles and Rosemount.

The Robert Douglas Memorial School (nursery and primary) is in the village and there are four secondary schools in Perth. Private schools in the area include Craigclowan, Strathallan, Glenalmond and Dundee High School. Perth has a railway station with services to Edinburgh, Glasgow, Dundee, Aberdeen and Inverness. Edinburgh Airport is easily reached and there are direct flights from Dundee to London City.
